

A Literary Evening
with
Stephen Brunt, Brent van Staalduin
& Ann Brocklehurst

Thursday, November 17th
7 p.m.
East Plains United Church
375 Plains Road East, Burlington ON

Stephen Brunt has written seven books including Facing Ali, published internationally and named one of the ten best sports books of the year by “Sports Illustrated.” His book Searching For Bobby Orr was a national bestseller and Gretzky’s Tears looks at the trade that changed hockey. Brunt has won the Michener award for public service journalism.

Brent van Staalduin is an award-winning writer who finds his voice in Hamilton, Ontario. His new novel is Saints, Unexpected. He won the 2016 Fiddlehead Best Short Fiction Prize, the 2015 Bristol Short Story Prize, and the 2015 Short Works Prize. He now makes his home in Westdale.

Ann Brocklehurst is a veteran reporter and licenced private investigator. In January 2015, her eight-part Walrus series on a sexual assault trial became a viral hit. She has worked for the International Herald Tribune and Reuters News Agency, and has lived in Germany and Hong Kong.

Admission: $20.00 All proceeds to East Plains United Church
Tickets available at the door or at A Different Drummer Bookstore, 905-639-0925